

Ground Transportation

Farrow provides reliable, dependable road transportation throughout the U.S. and Canada.

Farrow Express offers quick and reliable domestic and cross-border ground transportation services throughout the U.S. and Canada. Our services provide savings, flexibility, and improved delivery reliability. We provide both asset-based and non-asset-based services to help you find the best solution for efficient service delivery, reducing paperwork, and reducing costs.

Farrow has ground transportation solutions to get your shipments where they need to be, on time and reliably. Farrow can handle single shipments or manage your entire ground network while maintaining performance, security, technology, and equipment standards to give you peace of mind.

In addition to transportation management, Farrow integrates customs brokerage services for U.S., Canadian, and Mexican clients to create seamless cross border shipping solutions. Our one-stop shopping approach can help reduce your inventory and storage costs, improve service delivery, and allow you to schedule production more precisely.
